INT. 10TH PRECINCT CAPTAIN'S OFFICE - DAY

10

Both Agent Davenport and Agent Meadows come in the Captains and first stand close to the door the Captain closes the Door Behind them and then walks back over to his desk.

CAPTAIN LYONS

You all can have a seat.

AGENT DAVENPORT

Thank you but that won't be necessary we are just here to get information on any leads you may have on the murder of the Agent you recently discovered?

CAPTAIN LYONS

As of right now, we don't have any.

AGENT MEADOWS

I'm not sure if you are aware or even give a damn but this is a very serious situation.

CAPTAIN LYONS

I'm aware.

AGENT DAVENPORT

Doesn't seem that way, not even a single lead? What does the evidence look like.

CAPTAIN LYONS

We don't believe he was killed where the body was found. I've had a couple of my officers question a few people in the surrounding areas.

AGENT MEADOWS

Although your help is minimal we do appreciate it. However we'll take over from here if any important information turns up, feel free to give myself or Agent Davenport a heads up, Thanks again.

Agent Meadows hands Captain Lyons a card and then they both leave. Captain Lyons closes the door behind them. Captain frustrated goes and sits back at his desk with a perplexed look on his face, he takes a deep breath and then sits back in his chair.
